

Research Questions

- What changes has AI brought to the advancement and use of technology for those who are physically disabled and elderly?
- Which ethical and design questions come up when AI is used to help elderly people and people with disabilities?
- Which factors limit or promote the use of AI-based assistive technologies by many people?